

Much or Many

Name: _____

Date: _____

When to use "much" or "many"?

Rule: "Many" is used with countable nouns, while "much" is used with uncountable nouns.

Countable Nouns

Countable nouns are those nouns which can be counted using numbers. For example, a book, a pen, an apple, etc. are countable nouns.

Examples:

- I have many books.
- There are many students in the class.
- We can see many birds in the sky.

Uncountable Nouns

Uncountable nouns are those nouns which cannot be counted using numbers. For example, water, air, milk, etc. are uncountable nouns.

Examples:

- I don't have much money.
- There is not much water in the bottle.
- I don't have much time.

Fill in the blanks with much or many.

Real Madrid is a famous soccer team with _____ fans all over the world. They have _____ talented players who play together as a team to achieve victories. _____ of their success comes from hard work and practice. _____ people consider Real Madrid as one of the greatest soccer teams with _____ achievements and awards. They spend _____ money on new players to strengthen their lineup each season. _____ fans come to watch Real Madrid plays because they know they will witness _____ impressive goals and exciting games. Real Madrid is a fascinating soccer team that has made _____ unforgettable moments in history.

Much or Many

Name:

Date:

Choose the correct answer

_ people like to watch soccer games.

☐ Many ☐ Much

Not _ time is left in the game.

☐ much ☐ many

_ goals are scored in a match.

☐ Much ☐ Many

They don't have _ time to rest between games.

☐ many ☐ much

There are _ different soccer teams.

☐ many ☐ much

Players do _ training to improve their skills.

☐ many ☐ much

Now it's your turn. Write sentences about your favourite sport using "much" or "many".

I watch many soccer games...
